"I visited ScienceDirect to find new information for my assignments. I always open a few more tabs for any related research papers but with ScienceDirect topic pages, it helps me save my time researching any information as it really exposes various connections across one topic and others."

—AhliyasahAida Farihin,
Student, UMP

"Helped me quickly clarify a simple topic for the class I am teaching!"

—Graduate Student,
Educational Institution

"They made the article more clear and provided an easy way to make sure one had a full understanding. I thought it was very helpful. I could contain my searches to the article without wasting time looking information up elsewhere."

—Student response,
Lafayette College
